

Montana Office of Public Instruction Title I Parent Survey

The following statements will encourage you to reflect on family issues at your school. Please circle your response to each of the following items with “1” being the lowest and “4” being the highest.

Your school or school district:

1. Recognizes that all parents, regardless of your income, educational level, or cultural background, want your children to do well in school and are involved in your children’s learning.

1 2 3 4

2. Supplies a written Title I parental involvement policy that is jointly developed with you that outlines the partnership among the student, parent, and school.

1 2 3 4

3. Holds an annual meeting to inform you about the children in the Title I program.

1 2 3 4

4. Provides resources such as books, videos, and newsletters that help you participate with your child at home.

1 2 3 4

5. Encourages and provides opportunities for your input into the design and development of the school-parent compact.

1 2 3 4

6. Schedules varied meeting times to accommodate your work and child care schedules.

1 2 3 4

7. Provides you with ideas on how to help your children with their homework.

1 2 3 4

8. Thinks of the community as an extension of the family.

1 2 3 4

9. Provides opportunities for you to have input in the operations of your child's school.

1 2 3 4

10. The staff sees how diversity may be used to enrich learning experiences for your child.

1 2 3 4

11. Uses information from parent and family surveys to design or change school procedures and programs.

1 2 3 4

Please comment on each of these issues.

I would recommend the following changes for how the school communicates with families:

I would recommend the following changes for the Title I services my child is receiving:

I would recommend these changes for the Title I parent involvement policy:

Please list other ways that the district can help support you in your efforts to support your child's academic and social success:

Please list other comments or concerns here:

Thank you for your responses to this survey!